Would it be possible for the DGS to schedule an	An additional site visit can be scheduled at additional site visit to the District 2 Police HQ	the discretion of the procurement officer.
Does the scope of work of this solicitation includes	The scope of work includes full A/E design full A/E design for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of	for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design; (iii)	Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design;
Design Development; (iv) Construction Documents	(iii) Design Development; (iv) Construction and Project Specifications; (v) Bid Phase; and (vi)	Documents and Project Specifications; (v) Bid Construction Administration? At the pre-proposal	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. conference was said that this solicitation is intended only for the first phase of the project: (i) Program of Requirements ("POR"). However, at the site visit it was mentioned that this solicitation is intended for full A/E design for all of six (6) phases. Please clarify the scope of work of this solicitation.
Do the 8 projects required in section D.3.3 of the RFQ	The 8 projects cab be design completed. need to be construction completed? Can any of the projects be design completed?
Is the assumed project construction budget of $12-	The assumed construction budget is correct
$22M (listed on page 43 of the 276 page PDF) correct,	and Title I services are fully funded. and has the project been funded for the entirety of	· Title 1?
During the pre-proposal call on 6.16.2021 there was	The scope of work includes full A/E design discussion about the scope of the project being	for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of different than the scope outlined in the RFP.	Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design;
Participants were told solicitation DCAM 21 AE 0012	(iii) Design Development; (iv) Construction was to be a Feasibility Study only, with the deliverable was to be a reasibility study only, with the active able	Documents and Project Specifications; (v) Bid Documents and Project Specifications; (v) Bid Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. being a report with no drawings, and that the	Documents and Project Specifications; (v) Bid Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call.	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration.
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call. The RFP notes a Program of Requirements as a	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. The scope of work includes full A/E design
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call. The RFP notes a Program of Requirements as a deliverable, however during the pre-proposal call DGS	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. The scope of work includes full A/E design for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call. The RFP notes a Program of Requirements as a deliverable, however during the pre-proposal call DGS indicated programming would be done under a later	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. The scope of work includes full A/E design for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design;
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call. The RFP notes a Program of Requirements as a deliverable, however during the pre-proposal call DGS	The scope of work includes full A/E design for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design; (iii) Design Development; (iv) Construction
being a report with no drawings, and that the selected team would be ineligible to compete for selection on design efforts beyond the Feasibility Study. Contrary to this, at the walk through on 6.20.2021, the DGS representative indicated that the discussion on the pre-proposal call regarding scope was inaccurate and that teams should follow the scope outlined in the RFP. Please verify if the Scope of Work is the written scope in the RFP and not that described on the pre-proposal call. The RFP notes a Program of Requirements as a deliverable, however during the pre-proposal call DGS indicated programming would be done under a later phase. Please clarify final Scope of Work to include	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration. The scope of work includes full A/E design for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design;

Can the existing floor plans for the building be made available to the bidders?	Please see attached.
Please verify which phases are intended for the effort,	The scope of work includes full A/E design as the RFP schedule (page 4) indicates 5 phases of	for all of six (6) phases: (i) Program of work while the Scope of Work (pages 6-8) only	Requirements ("POR"); (ii) Schematic Design; requires 4 phases with associated deliverables.	(iii) Design Development; (iv) Construction Finally, under Design Fees (page 3) the offerer is to	Documents and Project Specifications; (v) Bid provide design fees for 6 phases including a separate	Phase; and (vi) Construction Administration.
bidding phase.
Please verify how many permit submissions should be	1 permit submission is anticipated anticipated.
Please verify if the department is anticipated to	The department is anticipated to remain on remain on the premises throughout the construction	the premises throughout the construction. period or either partially or fully move out of the building. If the police department will either partially or fully move out of the building to a swing space, will the swing space design be part of the SOW.
Please verify if development of a construction phasing	The development of a construction phasing plan is part of the SOW.	plan is not part of the SOW.
Please provide an organization chart for the functions	A organizational chart is not available at this / personnel assigned to the 2nd District headquarters.	time.