Item #7 Questions and Answer

Questions	Answers
Does the apprenticeship act apply to this solicitation. If so, how will we be required to initiate the apprenticeship? Will we need to have apprentices on board at all times?	Bidders will have to comply with the terms of the Apprentice Act. No. This ACT will be applicable based upon the task order issued.
Was there a mandatory prebid or prequal for this project?	No.
Section E.4.1.7: Talks about a Preliminary Schedule – Please confirm schedule requirement for this submission.	See Amendment No. 2 Item # 3
Section E.4.1.3 (B): Past Performance Evaluation Forms – Can we use evaluations from previous submissions?	No.
Section E.4.2.4– What is the total estimated value of these construction projects?	The construction project can range from $100,000.00 to over $1,000,000.00
The due date is currently Feb. 9, 2017, should we expect that this is going to be extended.	See Amendment No. 2 Item # 2
Is Attachment E the “Form of Contract” that we need to submit our comments on in our Attachment A Offeror Letter	No. See Amendment No 2 Item # 4
I see a Bid Bond is required in our price proposal (as is typical of all DC DGS solicitations). What % should we submit our bid bond on and/or do we not submit at this point due to the specific projects not being defined yet?	See Amendment No. 2 Item # 4. There is no Bid Bond Requirement.
Under DGS procurement regulations Section 4710.7, public notice for RFPs must be for at least 21 days unless the Contracting Officer issues a Determination & Findings that it is appropriate to shorten the public notice period. As currently posted, the public notice for this RFP is for a period that is less than 21 days. Has the Contracting Officer issued a Determination & Findings justifying a shortened public notice period? If so, will DGS provide a copy of the Determination & Findings to potential offerors?	Yes, the Contracting Officer has issued a Determination & Finding for a shortened public notice period. It is not DGS intent to provide a copy of the Determination & Finding to potential offerors.
