DCPS Recycles! Call for DCPS Photographers

Call for photographers: DGS seeks high quality photographs that celebrate the DCPS Recycles! program theme: “Everyone participates, anyone can advocate!”

Submission Instructions: Post your photographs on social media using the tag #DCPSRecycles or @dcdgs!

Contact: Beth Gingold, 202-727-3587, beth.gingold@dc.gov

“Awards”: Selected photographs with proper credits to the photographers and their schools may be:

- Published on the DGS website on Earth Day, April 22, 2015.
- Featured on the official DCPS Recycles! poster for 2015-2016.
- Displayed at the DC Annual Arts/Trashion Fashion Show in May 2015.
- Featured in DCPS Recycles! promotional materials.

Selection criteria: For selection, photographs must

- Be original artwork by DCPS students or staff.
- Celebrate DCPS students, custodial staff, or affiliates participating in or advocating for the DCPS Recycles! program.
- Include a creative title or caption, maximum 140 characters.

Additional submission materials: If selected, photographers will be requested submit to DGS.Recycles@dc.gov:

- The original high resolution photo (minimum 1200 x 1600 pixels).
- The name, school, and grade or title of photographer.
- Names of individuals in the photograph.
- Confirmation that students in the photo have media release forms signed.
- Confirmation that DGS has permission to use the photo.
